

2023 Annual State Conference Session Proposals Review Rubric

#	Criterion	Exemplary (4)	Proficient (3)	Partially Proficient (2)	Novice or Not Included (1)
1	Rationale for the Presentation /Alignment with strands	The rationale provided for this session is very strong and aligns with one or more stands.	The rationale provided for this session is present and somewhat aligns with one or more strands.	The rationale provided for this session is weak and the alignment with the strand is not as evident.	There is no valid rationale for this session and/or does not align with a strand.
2	Relevance for Practitioners, Researchers or Other Stakeholders	This is a topic of current relevance and includes valuable resources for attendees.	This is a topic of relevance and includes some resources for attendees.	This is a topic that has some relevance and may have some useful information for attendees.	This is a topic that is not relevant to attendees.
3	Session Outcomes/Perceived Takeaways	The identified learning outcomes are extremely clear and obtainable. They are strongly connected to the session description.	The identified learning outcomes are clear and attainable. They are connected to the session description.	The identified learning outcomes are vague OR are weakly connected to the session description.	The learning outcomes are missing or unconnected to the session description.
4	Accessibility	Explicitly demonstrates strategies for meeting the needs of all students.	Demonstrates strategies for meeting the needs of all students.	Lists strategies for meeting the needs of all students.	No or minimal evidence of strategies for meeting the needs of all students.
5	Session Recommendation:	Strongly recommend	Mostly recommend	Minimally recommend	Do not recommend